LAKE ROTOITI SCHOOL NEWS

Welcome back everyone to Term 2! Our big project for this term is, of course, our musical play; 'Archibald's War.' This is our most ambitious project to date as it has a large cast of characters (many children have two or even three roles!) and lots of period costumes which have to look right. Luckily, we have an army of helpers supported by Nicky who are hunting all local Opshops and making lots of items and Nelson Musical Theatre have come up trumps with authentic 1940s ladies' hats and fairisle knitwear for evacuees. Nelson Hairdressing salon 'Oboki' have offered to give all the boys an authentic period haircut – so they are travelling in for a mass haircut at the end of May! Tickets are selling fast so make sure you head to www.ticketdirect.co.nz

The process for the election of our new Board of Trustees is also now underway. Our Returning Officer, Ingrid McConochie, has now sent out nomination papers to all parents who are on our parental electoral roll. A copy of the parent and staff rolls are available to view in the school staffroom for anyone who is interested. Our election date has been set for Friday 3rd June.

SCHOOL NEWS CONTD.

This week we welcomed Fran Andrews to our team as relieving teacher in the Junior Room – the Juniors have been learning lots about Kea with Fran this week! We will all be seeing lots of Fran, both in the classroom and on the bus as Fran will be our new School Bus Driver; sharing the driving duties with Stu.
